I've recently been enjoying the "Real Truth, Real Quick" podcast with Todd Wagner from Watermark. It deals with relevant issues and provides answers to questions on life, leadership, and the world we live in. I highly recommend this great resource to help equip our men in our 1st "T" – TRUTH!

"Iron Couples" are Strong Couples

At Iron Forums, we believe that our marriages are the strongest when we both are rooted in the faith and share the values of Iron Sharpening Iron. As men, we are constantly sharpened by our wives, and likewise, we are able to sharpen them in the faith. It's an important partnership.

A handful of couples from our Snellville Iron Forum enjoyed a fun and sharpening night out together in November. Through these Iron Couple social gatherings, our wives get to experience and understand not only the important role they play in their own marriage and family, but also their importance to the entire organization. Has your Forum enjoyed one of these special night's out together?

Let's continue to be who God calls us to be for one another – as it says in Hebrews 10:24: "Let us consider how we may spur one another on in love and good deeds."

Favorite Verse & Why: Psalm 40:1-3 - This is a picture of what God did for me and in me as a college student.

Reason for joining IF: I first visited Iron Forums in 2018 during a season of transition and uncertainty. God used the men in the room to bring great clarity, encouragement and direction over the next few months. Once I tasted the depth of fellowship at Iron Forums, I never looked back!

Most Significant Personal Impact from Membership:

I've sought and received solid counsel in several major family and work decisions. I'm so thankful for the sharpening that happens around the Iron Forums table each month.

Why do you think others should consider membership: Though we are leaders, we can be prone to isolation. This is an opportunity to escape isolation and dive into authentic relationships with like-minded men who are seeking to put Jesus at the center of their life, marriage and business.

Have you missed a meeting?

If so, make sure you benefit from the teaching by watching the content module on the website. The content we use at Iron Forums has been very carefully considered, thought out, and produced. We not only want it to be available for Iron Forums meetings, but we want it to be "transferable," — used by our members to share with their wives, business partners, or staff. Ask your facilitator which topic was covered, and you can "catch up" by watching the video, downloading the PDF, and answering the questions. It's a good way to keep up, even if you have to skip a Forum.
